DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-8, 18-23, 30-35, 53-54, and 57, drawn to a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material and a production method of a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material and having a metal substrate having a microchannel portion and cover member having feed material inlet and a gas outlet.

Group II, claims 9-17, 55 and 56, drawn to a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material, a production method of a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material and having metals substrates having microchannel portions and having throughholes for connections between microchannels.

Art Unit: 1791

Group III, claims 24-29, 36-52, and 58, drawn to a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material and a production method of a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material and having a pair of metal substrates each having a microchannel portion.

Group IV, claim 42, drawn to a microreactor for obtaining hydrogen gas by reforming a feed material.

The inventions listed as Groups I, II and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The claim are unobvious over the admitted prior art in view of either WO 02/09866 or WO 00/73056 which each teach that a microreactor can be made of metal. Accordingly, the special technical feature linking the inventions, use of a metal substrate for the reactor, does not provide a contribution over the prior art, and no single general inventive concept exists. Therefore, restriction is appropriate.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III and IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of Groups I-III, a metal substrate, is not shared by Group IV, in which the special technical feature is a coupling member comprising a plurality of coupling portions.

A telephone call was made to Marvin Spivak on 8/08 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
